Splice the body parts of your aliens to perform the best in the expanding space station. Give them tentacles to grab more resources, brains to score more points, leaves to photo-synthesize or claws to chase opponents!

- Features modular, custom built plastic meeples with 4 types of attachable components.
- Easy to learn, but becomes more challenging as the space station expands.
- Modular gaming board guarantees high replayability.

Pixie Queen is a highly interactive and strategic worker-placement game about a Queen who rules over her subordinates like a true tyrant. During the game, the best player will receive the least penalty points. The reward points, that you obtain by using various game tactics, are only added during the final scoring.

- High-end game materials, including 300 (!) wooden pieces with custom shaped wooden Pixie meeples and food tokens.
- Exciting until the very end thanks to hidden victory points.
- Combination of action discs with movable Pixies results in innovative game mechanics with variable game play.
